MATTERS ARISING

STREET NAMING AND NUMBERING - PEWSEY ROAD, MARLBOROUGH -
THE MERIDIAN HOUSING ASSOCIATION - MINUTE 319/88 (e)

Members agreed that the name suggested originally - 'Castle Court' should be reiterated.

RESOLVED:

That this Council strongly objects to the use of the name 'College Court' for the development as there is already a clearly defined area of Marlborough College known by this name.
It is suggested that the name 'Castle Court'
should be used as the development overlooks
the Old Castle.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

HUGHENDEN YARD - NAMING OF NEW DEVELOPMENT

The Chairman, Councillor M. P. Cooper read a letter from certain traders in Hughenden Yard asking for the new development at the rear of 109 High Street to be re-named.

Members felt that the new development at the rear of 109 High Street should be named Hughenden Yard with a continuation of numbering from the original yard. It was also felt that there was some doubt as to whether 'Monsoon' was part of 107 High Street.

RESOLVED: That the new development at the rear of 109 High Street, Marlborough should be named Hughenden Yard with a continuation of the numbers from the original yard.

That a plate be placed in both the old yard and the new development, indicating the numbers in each area

That the Town Clerk check the numbering of 107 High Street.
