3. Arrangements for Unveiling of Plaque Commemorating Eglantyne Jebb by HRH The Princess Royal

The Chairman reported on her meeting with Mrs. S. Leake of Multiplex, Printers which the Town Clerk arranged in order to discuss costing for invitations and commemorative programme. The main item for the Committee's consideration was the text and setting of the above to be proof-read with care. Fine tuning the frontespiece and adjustment to the text took considerable time with a rearrangement of guests listed on the back page. The revised version to be faxed back to the printers promptly, with copy to Miss J. de Rhé Philipe to be available together with proposed list of all those to be invited, keeping numbers within reason for inclusion into the confines of the Library.

4. A format for the day is in draft form and will be made available once finalised.

5. The Chairman will meet with Miss J. de Rhé Philipe in the coming week at the Library with Mrs. M. McLoughlin (3.30pm Thursday, 31st October 1996).

On the 6th November, 1996 the Chairman will also meet with Mrs. M. Weston, Head of St. Peter's School and Mrs. L. Champion, Chairman of Marlborough Save the Children Fund to update arrangements for the small exhibition being arranged by Mrs. Champion and the role of the children from St. Peter's on the day.

6. The Town Map Correspondence with Mr. A. Houghton confirms that every endeavour is being made to resite the Town Map in time for Her Royal Highness's visit.
